Delaware: Your Destination For Family Fun!

Searching for a place that offers unforgettable adventures, cool activities, and endless amusement for the whole family? Look no farther than Delaware.

Less than a three hour drive from New York City, Washington D.C., and all points in between, Delaware is the ideal spot for families looking for a great getaway that's not too far from home.

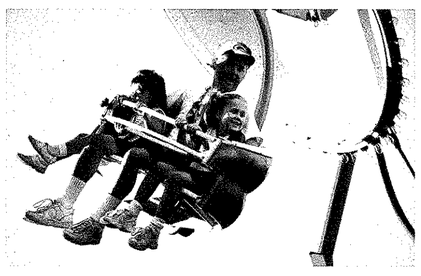
Delaware offers a multitude of things to see and do for kids and kids at heart. From tales of brave patriots to a romp through an Enchanted Woods, memories made in Delaware will leave the whole family asking, "Are we there yet?" For more information on visiting Delaware, go to www.visitdelaware.com or call 866.2.VISIT.DE (866.284.7483).

So Many Things to Do!
At Wilmington's Delaware History Museum, check out a life-size American Indian long house, marvel at the size of the world's largest fry pan and try on vintage clothing in "Grandma's Attic."

Adults can view the world's most extensive collection of early American antiques at Winterthur, An American Country Estate in Wilmington, as the little ones have fun in the "Touch-It" Room. They can dress in 18th century costumes, trade goods in the general store, and play with toys and small tools used in the Colonial era. Afterward, the whole family can discover the magic of a fairy tale garden in the Enchanted Woods.

Fort Delaware in Delaware City is the former prisoner of war camp for Confederate soldiers captured at Gettysburg. Travel by ferry to this island fortress and take part in an interactive tour led by authentically-clad historic interpreters. The Fort's candlelight ghost tours and children's infantry drills are popular with families.

At the DiscoverSea Shipwreck Museum in Fenwick Island, kids can get a close-up view of relics recovered from ancient shipwrecks, many of which were found off the Delaware coast. After a tour of the museum, hunt for your own treasure by renting a metal detector on-site and heading out to Coin Beach, where King George III coins have been found.



If your kids think milk comes from a grocery store, a visit to Dover's Delaware Agricultural Museum and Village is the perfect excursion. Here, more than 4,000 agriculture-related artifacts, including a crop duster, antique tractors and the first broiler chicken house, are on display.

For some high-flying fun, head to the Air Mobility Command Museum on Dover Air Force Base. The museum houses some of the most distinguished military flying machines used during the past 50 years. Stand in the bomb bay of a B-17, view the colossal C-5 Galaxy transport, and examine the combat scars of a C-47.

For a spectacular view of the scenic Brandywine Valley, board a vintage locomotive at the Wilmington and Western Railroad in Wilmington. The railroad offers many events geared toward children, including Civil War skirmish trains, the 49ers gold rush, and holiday-themed rides such as the Fireworks Express.

"Hands-on" is an important part of kid-oriented activities at Cape Henlopen State Park in Lewes. The Seaside Nature Center features a "please touch" tank inhabited by small creatures of the sea. Special programs, free with admission to the park, include kayak excursions, seining, and butterfly hunts. Cape Henlopen also provides bicycles free of charge to park patrons – a great way to explore the park's extensive paved trail system.

Delaware's oceanside boardwalks equal miles of fun for the whole family. In Rehoboth Beach, ride the Paratrooper at Funland or play miniature golf at a course that offers a bird's-eye view of the ocean. In the spring or fall, rent a bicycle built for four (or more) and cruise down the mile-long boardwalk. Or take in the sun and surf with a leisurely stroll down the boards of Bethany Beach, affectionately known as one of Delaware's "quiet resorts."

Find out if your child is the next Julia Child or Jacques Pepin by enrolling them in a kid's cooking class at the Wizard's Whisk in Rehoboth Beach. Students will receive an introduction to the culinary world, learning to prepare toasted sandwiches, homemade pizzas and desserts.

Arts and crafts foster a child's creativity and provide a great solution to a rainy day! Families can create their own works of art, including painted pottery, picture frames and wooden toys at Creatable Crafts in Rehoboth Beach. The Rehoboth Art League encourages young artists through painting, pottery or sculpture courses specifically designed for kids.

Enter the Johnson Victrola Museum and be greeted by a larger- than-life-size Nipper, the dog made famous as the mascot of RCA/Victor Records. Youngsters will get a kick out of listening to records on a Victrola, the predecessor to today's CD player. They'll have fun comparing the work of the world's first recording artists to the sounds of today's pop stars.

Kids can hone their sleuthing skills figuring out "whodunit" at the simulated crime scene in the Delaware State Police Museum in Dover. The museum also features law enforcement memorabilia including the first Delaware State Police uniforms and one of the first patrol vehicles – a 1925 Harley Davidson motorcycle.

Hip Happenings for the Whole Family

January
Hagley's Invention Convention
Hagley Museum, Wilmington
Celebrate the secrets and solutions of inventions with hands-on activities and interactive science presentations.

February
Maple Sugaring
Abbott's Mill Nature Center, Milford
Just like in the old days, kids try their hand at tapping a tree, and collecting and boiling the sap.

March
Nestlings Walking Series
Brandywine Creek State Park, Delaware
Enjoy the great outdoors and introduce your baby (designed for ages 6 weeks to 18 months) to the world of nature. Babies will enjoy new sensory delights like touching feathers, fur, crinkly leaves and soft moss.

April
Great Delaware Kite Festival, Lewes
Kite races, contests, arts and crafts. The fun started in 1969 when the Maharajah of Bharatpur, India challenged Delaware's Governor to a kite duel.

May
Spring Fling
Delaware Museum of Natural History, Wilmington
A variety of outdoor activities and programs for the whole family, including viewing exotic animals on display and a hands-on "build your own bird feeder" workshop.

June
St. Anthony's Italian Festival
St. Anthony's of Padua, Wilmington
Teach your kids the Chicken Dance at one of the largest ethnic festivals on the East Coast. Italian food, live music, amusement rides and daring circus acts are spread throughout several city blocks.

July
Delaware State Fair
Delaware State Fair Grounds, Harrington
An old fashioned country event celebrating America's rural lifestyle, featuring carnival rides, games, home cooking, farming exhibits, animals, as well as top country and pop artists.

August
Delaware State News Sandcastle Contest
Rehoboth Avenue and Boardwalk, Rehoboth Beach
This unique event draws sandcastle enthusiasts form around the country. From casual spectators, to sand dabblers, to competitive teams; everybody shares in the fun.

September
Nanticoke Indian Pow-Wow
Route 24, Millsboro
Celebrate the history of the Nanticoke Indians of Delaware with ancient tribal customs, singing, dancing, and storytelling. Kids will love "fry bread," the Native American version of the tortilla.

October
Sea Witch and Fiddler's Festival
Rehoboth Beach-Dewey Beach resort area
More than 100 different activities for all ages, including a huge costume contest, a broom tossing contest, a best costumed pet contest, horse shows on the beach, pony rides, spook shows, horse-drawn hayrides, and a haunted woods.

November
World Championship Punkin Chunkin
County Roads 305 and 306, Millsboro
Crowds of more than 25,000 people gather to see dozens of home-made contraptions launch 8- to 10-pound pumpkins into the air. The contraption that "chunks" the pumpkin the farthest wins.

December
Farmer's Christmas
Delaware Agriculture Museum, Dover
A 19th century Victorian Christmas brought to life in a lantern-lit rural village by demonstrators, costumed interpreters, traditional songs, and stories.
