Ryan Property

General Description. The Ryan Property is located on the west side of SR 1 (7615 Bay Road). It is very close to the intersection of Bowers Beach Road. The store is the only building on the lot, and there is a macadam parking lot on the south side of this lot and grassed land on the north side. This small commercial building is built with concrete blocks and is painted with a cream color. It is rectangular in shape, with a corner entrance to the northeast. The building is in fair to good condition, with small areas of peeling paint throughout. Various banner-type advertising signs cover the north and east walls of the building, with a sign bearing "113 Liquor Mart" on the west wall. Two stanchions outside the building bear a "Coors Light Discount Liquors" and a "JC Liquor Mart" sign. There is a self-service ice machine against the north wall.

The building is protected by a gable roof with a partial hip-roof extension on the north end. There is a small wing on the south end of the building that appears to house a storage area and/or the heating/cooling system for the building. The south gable end has a double-hung, two-over-two-pane window on the main floor and a fixed, four-pane window in the crawl space under the ridge line. On the west wall, there are no openings that are in use, but there appears to be a boarded-up window toward the south end. Although there is a two-over-two window on the north wall, it is covered with an advertising sign, so none of the detail is visible. On the east wall, there is a single-leaf, glazed doorway (not in use) and a single-pane window.

Historical Background. Kent County property records do not indicate a construction date for the building. Based on the style and on historic maps, it appears to date from the early 1950s. The tax assessor's office indicates that the property was also used as a video store, restaurant, and apartment (Kent County Tax Assessor's Office).

On September 30, 1933, Adley B. Magee sold his farm land to Jesse S. Cooper (KCDB U13:122). On September 15, 1943, Jesse S. Cooper sold the property to Edward T. Pardees and his wife, Charlotte M. Pardees (KCDB K16: 451). On December 1, 1953, Edward T. and Charlotte M. Pardee sold the property to the Delaware Reality Exchange, Inc. for $12,000 (KCDB G20: 244). On December 15, 1954, the Delaware Reality Exchange, Inc. sold the property containing 122.0 acres, along with another property, to Thomas F. Ryan (KCDB N21: 559). On June, 24, 1957, Thomas F. Ryan sold that property, along with another property containing 16,000.0 square feet, to Sallie R. Brayman, also known as Sarah Brayman. On September 19, 1987, Sallie passed away, leaving both parcels to Robert F. Ryan, at which point he combined the parcels into one property (KCDB N21: 559). On October 4, 1989, Robert F. Ryan sold the property containing 31,000.0 square feet to Adley S. Girgis for $65,000 (KCDB G47:131). On January 12, 2003, Adley S. Girgis conveyed the property Julian Cortez (KCDB 516: 118).

Evaluation. The Ryan Property is recommended not eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places because it does not meet the eligibility criteria established by the National Park Service (NPS 1997). The store is an example of an altered, mid-twentieth-century building within the SR 1 Interchange study area. This resource has no notable character-defining features for commercial architecture. The lack of commercial architectural features dating from the resource's period of significance detracts from its ability to convey its historic significance. The property lacks sufficient historic integrity to convey its commercial architectural significance under Criterion A. This resource retains integrity of location but lacks integrity of design, setting, materials, association, workmanship, and feeling. The property is recommended not eligible for listing in the National Register under Criterion A.

Property-specific research and documentary research of the area in general did not reveal any associations between this property and significant events or trends. Likewise, research did not reveal any associations with significant individuals; therefore, the property is recommended not eligible for listing under Criterion B. The store does not display the distinctive characteristics of a type, style, or method of construction, nor does it represent the work of a master or possess high artistic value; therefore, it is recommended not eligible under Criterion C. Archaeological investigations have not yet been conducted on this property; therefore, the resource's eligibility under Criterion D (potential to yield information important to history or prehistory) cannot be assessed at this time.
