

Appendix B:

Personnel

Personnel

Barbara J. Shaffer, Archaeology Group Coordinator, Principal Investigator

M.A., Historic Preservation, Goucher College, Maryland, 2009

M.A., Anthropology/Archaeology, Pennsylvania State University, 1996

B.A., Anthropology, Minor in Sociology, Pennsylvania State University, 1989

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards for Archaeology and Architectural History (36CFR§61)

Occupational Safety and Health Administration Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response Worker Training Certification (29CFR§1910.120)

Occupational Safety and Health Administration Confined Space Entrant, Attendant, and Supervisor Training Certification (29CFR§1910.146)

Ms. Shaffer has over nineteen years of professional experience in historic and archaeological research. She has two years of experience working in the Pennsylvania SHPO as a Historic Preservation Specialist/Review Archaeologist. For three years she served as one of the PennDOT's Cultural Resource Qualified Professionals. She has provided assistance with the management of compliance archaeological work for several PennDOT Districts and the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, including training PennDOT personnel on a variety of cultural resources issues, such as Section 106 and Section 4(f) coordination, implementation of Programmatic Agreements, and management of cultural resource field work. Ms. Shaffer has also assisted PennDOT in the preparation, execution, training, and implementation of two program-wide Programmatic Agreements. She has been the Principal Investigator for all levels of archaeological investigations on prehistoric and historic archaeological sites.

Richard L. White, Archaeologist, Field Director

M.A., University of Leicester, 2007

B.A., Anthropology, Bloomsburg University, Pennsylvania, 1995

Occupational Safety and Health Administration HAZWOPER Site Worker Training Certification.

Mr. White has over nine years of professional experience in archaeological research in the Middle Atlantic region. He has expertise in all phases of Historic and Prehistoric excavation specializing in large-scale historical phase III and colonial industrial excavations. He acted as the assistant field director at the National Constitution Center Site in downtown Philadelphia. He has participated in all phases of excavation in the Middle Atlantic Region including Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.

Brenda L. Weller, Archaeologist, Laboratory Director

M.A., Anthropology, Specialization in Zooarchaeology, State University of New York at Binghamton, 2011

B.A., Anthropology, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, 1994

Ms. Weller has over thirteen years of experience in Cultural Resource Management in the Middle Atlantic region. She has worked for CRM firms in New York and Pennsylvania, and has participated in prehistoric and historic site excavations in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, & Delaware. Additionally she is an experienced zooarchaeologist, who has performed analyses on both prehistoric and historic faunal assemblages. As laboratory director she has analyzed numerous historic assemblages from rural, urban and industrial sites, supervised assemblage processing and curation and submitted several assemblages for long-term curation with the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission and Delaware State Museum.

Robert H. Eiswert, Archaeologist

M.A., American Studies, Pennsylvania State University, 2005

B.A., History and Anthropology, Bloomsburg University, Pennsylvania, 1995

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards for Archaeology (36CFR§61)

Occupational Safety and Health Administration Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response Worker Training Certification (29CFR§1910.120)

Mr. Eiswert has over thirteen years of professional experience in archaeological research in the Middle Atlantic region. For the last three years he has served as a Principal Investigator. Prior to that he worked as a field director on numerous projects ranging from large scale Phase I surveys to Phase III data recovery excavations. Mr. Eiswert has experience supervising excavations on a variety of sites in Pennsylvania and Delaware including stratified pre-contact sites, historic farmsteads, and industrial sites. In addition, Mr. Eiswert has experience in the supervision, management and coordination of transportation projects involving archaeology and cultural resources, serving as a PennDOT Culture Resource Professional.

Jerry A. Clouse, Architectural Historian

M.A., American Studies, Pennsylvania State University, 1993

B.A., English, University of Kentucky, 1972

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards for Architectural History (36CFR§61)

Mr. Clouse has over twenty-one years of professional experience conducting historic research and evaluation of historic structures in the Middle Atlantic region. He has seven years experience working in the National Register Division of the Pennsylvania SHPO. Prior to that he worked as an architectural historian for the Cumberland County Historical Society. For two years he served as one of the PennDOT's Cultural Resource Qualified Professionals. He has provided assistance with the management of compliance historic preservation work for several PennDOT Districts, including training PennDOT personnel on a variety of cultural resources issues, such as Section 106 and Section 4(f) coordination, implementation of Programmatic Agreements, and management of cultural resource field work.

Francine F. Arnold, Architectural Historian

M.A., Historic Preservation, Graduate School of Fine Arts, University of Pennsylvania, in progress

B. A., General Arts and Science, Concentrations in Fine Arts and Anthropology, Pennsylvania State University, 1990

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards for Architectural History.

Ten years of experience in historic research, inventory, and evaluation of historic structures and archaeological resources in the Middle Atlantic region.

Kevin J. Simons, Archaeologist

M.A., Anthropology/Historical Archaeology, Binghamton University, State University of New York, 1999

B.A., Anthropology, West Chester University, 1995

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards for Archaeology.

Mr. Simons has over five years of professional experience in archaeological research in the Middle Atlantic region. He was previously employed as one of PennDOT's Cultural Resource Qualified Professionals. In this role, he managed compliance archaeological work for several PennDOT Districts, including training PennDOT personnel on a variety of cultural resources issues, such as Section 106 and Section 4(f) coordination, implementation of Programmatic Agreements, and management of cultural resource field work.

Charles A. Richmond, Architectural Historian

M.A., American Studies, Pennsylvania State University, 2000

B.A., History and Political Science, Thiel College, Pennsylvania, 1992

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards for Architectural History (36CFR§61)

Mr. Richmond has over eight years of experience in historic preservation research, inventory, and evaluation of above ground historic resources for the National Register of Historic Places. He has gained experience in field survey work, historic context development, and report writing during his four years as a historic structures specialist with McCormick Taylor. Through his experience as an Intern with the PA Game Commission Land Management Bureau, he has a strong degree of knowledge regarding Section 106 and Section 4(f) processes. He has received NEPA and Section 4(f) training. Mr. Richmond also has several other years of unrelated work experience in which he has contributed to newsletters and report editing and production.

Keith R. Doms, Archaeologist

B.A., Anthropology, University of Delaware, 1984

Mr. Doms has over twenty-seven years of professional experience in archaeological research in the Middle Atlantic region. He spent eighteen years managing the archaeology laboratories at the University of Delaware where he oversaw the processing and analysis of Native American and Historic artifacts of the Mid-Atlantic region. During this time Mr. Doms also participated in field work on a variety of Native American and Historic archaeological sites in the Mid-Atlantic region. He has received training in and has experience in conservation, and faunal identification. He has training and seventeen years of experience in oyster analysis.

Dorothy A. Daly, Environmental Planner

M.L.A., Master of Landscape Architecture, University of Pennsylvania, 1998

B.A., Psychology, Temple University 1995

Two years professional experience in the preparation of environmental documents.

Field Technicians

Patrice Bamat
Diane Belay
Jonathan Bream
Joelle Browning
Timothy Coan
Macon Coleman
Keith Doms
Robert Eiswert
Maria Galbon
Maureen Jones
Jeffrey Kauffman
Annmarie Kmetz
Dawn Lewis
Jason Kerschner
Richard Paulhamus
Richard Petyk
Kevin Simons
Marlin Sowers
Dane Snyder
Drew Stanzascki
Brenda Weller
Stephen Weller

Volunteers

Alex Boyce
Tyler Browning
Mary Casini
Maria Masington