Terry Campus Conference Center
Dover, Delaware

The Kent County Economic Summit: Building a Better Community brings together citizens, community leaders, business leaders, and local government officials to provide an authoritative voice on economic development and related issues within the County. The presenters are actively involved in the major economic engines within the County.

Participants will be able to obtain information from local experts and government officials on the current economy and issues of today. Presenters will outline realistic ways that have been implemented or will be implemented to improve the economic picture for all businesses big and small.
