

Bike to Work Day is a celebration of bicycles as a fun and healthy way to get to work, as well as an opportunity for those who don't usually bike commute to try it out! This event is held during National Bike Month, aims to improve bicycle infrastructure and safety. The following are scheduled events;

City of Lewes - Friday May 10th

Mayor Ted Becker proclaimed May as Bike Month in Lewes and noted that May 10th is Bike to Work Day. He is urging citizens to use their bicycles to go to work or school, to run errands and leave their cars in the garage. The mayor invites cyclists to ride with him for a ceremonial drive through Lewes. The ride will begin at 205 Second Street at 8:00 a.m. and all participants will receive a free T-shirt.
