

Other Traffic Monitoring Activities

Not included in this report are the numerous site-specific traffic counts conducted on demand during 2002. The Division of Planning currently has a subcontractor who is equipped to perform turning movements counts, through traffic counts, and vehicle classification counts at any location on the DeIDOT highway network. Currently, work is in progress to develop a central database where all of this information can be easily accessed, stored and maintained.