

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	i
Table of Contents.....	vi
List of Figures.....	x
List of Tables.....	xxvii
Acknowledgments.....	xxxiii
List of Contributors.....	xxxvii
PART I: INTRODUCTION
1.0 Introduction.....	1-1
SR1 Archaeology.....	1-1
Hunter Research Investigations.....	1-5
Parsons Investigations.....	1-11
2.0 Problem Orientation.....	2-1
Current Schools of Thought and Major Tenets.....	2-1
Operationalizing Hickory Bluff: Conceptual Framework and Research Strategy.....	2-8
Cosmology and Ritual.....	2-29
Conclusion.....	2-31
3.0 Public Involvement.....	3-1
Compliance.....	3-1
History of Public Outreach Concerns.....	3-2
Reaching Out to Native Americans.....	3-4
The DelDOT Program.....	3-6
Hickory Bluff.....	3-8
Professional Outreach and Interaction.....	3-25
Native American Involvement at Hickory Bluff.....	3-27
Summary.....	3-28
PART II: ENVIRONMENTAL CONTEXT
4.0 Regional Setting and Geologic History of the St. Jones River Valley.....	4-1
Physiographical and Geological Background.....	4-2
Upland History and Morphology.....	4-3
River Valley History and Morphology.....	4-6
The Valley/Upland Dichotomy and Eolian Processes.....	4-7
Hickory Bluff Site Formation within a Changing Environmental Framework.....	4-9
PART III: ETHNOHISTORY
5.0 Delmarva Ethnohistory.....	5-1
Groups at Contact.....	5-1
Post-Contact Period Populations.....	5-8
Settlement Systems.....	5-8
Subsistence Practices.....	5-13
Trade and Exchange.....	5-17
Cosmology and Ritual Behavior.....	5-21
Summary.....	5-33

PART IV: STRATIGRAPHY AND FEATURES

6.0	Stratigraphy and Radiocarbon Dating.....	6-1
	Archaeological Stratigraphy .....	6-1
	Geoarchaeological Stratigraphy.....	6-2
	Radiocarbon Dating .....	6-7
7.0	Features.....	7-1
	Hickory Bluff Feature Typology .....	7-1
8.0	Floral and Faunal Studies .....	8-1
	Modern Botanical Study .....	8-1
	Macrobotanical Study .....	8-9
	Faunal Study .....	8-19
	Summary .....	8-27
9.0	Geoarchaeological Analysis of Features and Deposits.....	9-1
	Archaeological Features .....	9-1
	Sediment Analyses.....	9-5
10.0	Feature Formation- Basins.....	10-1
	Introduction.....	10-1
	Semi-subterranean Structures in Delaware.....	10-2
	The Role of Trees.....	10-4
	Subsurface Tree Morphology Study .....	10-13
	Experimental Feature Degradation Study.....	10-33
	Feature Contour Mapping.....	10-58
	Basin Formation Model .....	10-68
	Basin Feature Analysis .....	10-85
	Historical Influences on Hickory Bluff Features.....	10-101
11.0	Feature Formation- Thermally Altered Stone Features .....	11-1
	Introduction.....	11-1
	Economic, Social and Ceremonial Residues .....	11-2
	Observations of the Hickory Bluff Sweat Lodge Ceremony .....	11-8
	Model for TAS Usage.....	11-16
	TAS Sample Study.....	11-33
	Results of TAS Analysis.....	11-67

PART V: ASSEMBLAGE DESCRIPTION AND ANALYSES

12.0	Artifact Assemblages.....	12-1
	Laboratory Methodology .....	12-1
	Fine Screen Matrix Assemblage.....	12-2
	Chipped Stone Assemblage .....	12-4
	Cobble Tool Assemblage.....	12-43
	Ground Stone Assemblage.....	12-51
	Other Lithic or Mineral Artifacts.....	12-57
	Ceramic Assemblage .....	12-58
13.0	Stone Procurement and Stone Tool Manufacture and Use.....	13-1
	Local Gravel Study .....	13-1
	Reduction Sequences .....	13-12
	Projectile Point Attribute Analysis .....	13-21

	Tool Use and Function.....	13-57
	Regional Lithic Sources and Procurement Strategies.....	13-102
	Summary.....	13-116
14.0	Ceramic Manufacture and Use.....	14-1
	Introduction.....	14-1
	Manufacturing Attributes and Social Signatures.....	14-1
	Vessel Function.....	14-10
	Manufacturing Locations and Mobility.....	14-19
	Evaluation of Ceramic Types.....	14-58
15.0	Color Analysis.....	15-1
	Projectile Points.....	15-1
	Ceramic Lots.....	15-4
	Artifacts/Features.....	15-5
	Interpretations.....	15-7
 PART VI: SPATIAL ANALYSIS
16.0	Spatial Distribution and Analysis.....	16-1
	Introduction.....	16-1
	Spatial Analysis.....	16-8
 PART VII: SYNTHESIS AND CONCLUSIONS
17.0	Chronology.....	17-1
	Introduction.....	17-1
	Radiocarbon Dates.....	17-1
	Residue Dates.....	17-7
	Combined Data.....	17-7
	Summary.....	17-15
18.0	Site Structure and Formation.....	18-1
	Methodology.....	18-1
	Locus A Block 1.....	18-3
	Locus A Block 2.....	18-10
	Northwest Main Block.....	18-16
	Locus H Block 2.....	18-31
	Locus I.....	18-35
	General Observations.....	18-41
19.0	Native American Land Use and Settlement Patterns.....	19-1
	Hickory Bluff Occupations.....	19-1
	The St. Jones River Occupations.....	19-7
	Middle Reaches of the St. Jones River.....	19-11
	The Delmarva Adena on the St. Jones River.....	19-23
20.0	Material Culture Comparisons.....	20-1
	Lithic Technology.....	20-2
	Ceramic Assemblage.....	20-10
	Subsistence Data.....	20-18
21.0	Changing Views of Site Dynamics.....	21-1
	Local and Historical Conditions.....	21-2

Exploring the Non-Secular .....	21-5
22.0 Project Evaluation and Future Prospects .....	22-1
Public Outreach.....	22-1
Staged Fieldwork .....	22-3
Chronology .....	22-4
Paleoenvironments and Subsistence .....	22-6
Artifact Assemblages .....	22-8
Feature Formation.....	22-11
Activity and Spatial Distributions.....	22-14
Societal Patterns.....	22-15
Ritual and Symbolism.....	22-16
Reports and the Need for Synthesis.....	22-19
REFERENCE MAPS.....	RM-1
REFERENCES CITED.....	R-1
APPENDICES
Appendix A- Historical Component.....	A-1
Archival Research.....	A-1
Archaeological Investigations.....	A-11
Historical Land Use .....	A-17
Appendix B- Public Outreach Materials
Appendix C- Feature Data
Appendix D- Geoarchaeology
Appendix E- Feature Degradation Study Observations
Appendix F- Artifact Inventory
Appendix G- Fine Screen Matrix Inventory
Appendix H- Projectile Point Photography
Appendix I- Ceramic Lot Descriptions
Appendix J- Mineralogy
