

Jerry Clouse
Project Historic Structures Coordinator

Mr. Clouse meets/exceeds 36 CFR 61 Secretary of Interior Standards for Professional Qualifications as an architectural historian with more than eighteen years full-time experience. He has conducted field survey work, researched and written National Register nominations, and researched historical background information for archaeological investigations. Clouse has also written and produced other cultural resource documents such as Historic Structures Survey & Determination of Eligibility reports, Determination of Effect reports, and Historic American Building Survey (HABS) recordation. In addition, he has provided technical assistance to PennDOT Bureau of Environmental Quality on cultural resource policy and day-to-day operations.

Education

1993 M.A. in American Studies, Pennsylvania State University, Harrisburg

1972 B.A. in English, University of Kentucky, Lexington

Professional Experience

1995-present McCormick Taylor, Inc. Historic Structures Coordinator

1988-1995 Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Com. National Register Assistant

1987-1988 Cumberland County Historical Society. Architectural Researcher

Katry Harris Project Planner

Ms. Harris is a project planner with over 16 years experience in historical research, the evaluation of architectural resources, and the application of Section 106 to federal undertakings. She also has extensive experience in preparing NEPA documents and Section 4(f) Evaluations. She has managed projects involving all aspects of NEPA including Section 106 studies, Section 4(f) evaluations, noise studies, socio-economic studies, and wetlands permitting. Ms. Harris has successfully coordinated with federal resource agencies, including USACE, EPA, NPS (National Register of Historic Places) and ACHP; and various state resource agencies in Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Texas, Utah, Arkansas, and Connecticut. She has particular experience with complex and controversial projects including extensive public involvement programs such as working groups and design charettes.

Education

1999 M.H.P., Historic Preservation, The University of Georgia
1993-1995 Coursework, Historic Preservation, The University of Georgia
1989 B.A., History, University of Maryland

Professional Experience

2002-Present	Rummel, Klepper & Kahl, LLP	Project Planner
2000-2002	Michael Baker Corporation	Project Manager
1998-2000	Michael Baker Corporation	Cultural Resources Section Manager
1995-1998	Michael Baker Corporation	Architectural Historian
1989-1993	Historic Annapolis Foundation	Archivist/ State Historic Buildings Manager/ Tour Director

Charles Richmond
Historic Structures Specialist

Mr. Richmond is an historic structures specialist with over eight years experience in historical research, the evaluation of architectural resources, and the application of Section 106 to federal undertakings. Mr. Richmond meets/exceeds 36 CFR 61 Secretary of Interior Standards for Professional Qualifications as an architectural historian. He has conducted research for both historic structures and archaeological projects. In addition, he has conducted research to establish contexts for cultural resource studies and coordinated with various state agencies in Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Virginia.

Education

2000	M.A., American Studies, The Pennsylvania State University
1992	B.A., History, Thiel College

Professional Experience

1998-Present	McCormick Taylor, Inc.	Historic Structures Specialist
1996-1997	Pennsylvania Game Commission	Environmental Impacts Intern

Lara Otis
Architectural Historian

Ms. Otis meets the 36 CFR 61 Secretary of Interior Standards for Professional Qualifications as an architectural historian. She has more than three years full-time experience conducting survey work and preparing Historic Structures Survey & Determination of Eligibility Reports and Determination of Effect Reports. Ms. Otis has done survey work in Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey.

Education

2002	M.A. in Historic Preservation Planning, Cornell University
1999	B.A. in History/French, College of William and Mary

Professional Experience

2002-present	McCormick Taylor, Inc. Architectural Historian
--------------	--