The Project Team invites the community to learn more about this year-long process and the emerging findings and provide feedback on potential strategies and recommendations. Participants are encouraged to attend in person. A zoom link, however, is also provided for online engagement.

Comments will be received during the workshop in person and via zoom, or can be sent via email to dotpublic@delaware.gov or Humaira.Nabeela@delaware.gov. To find out more about the Study, including recordings and minutes from past meetings, please visit the website listed above.
